BEGINNER CLASS DESCRIPTION:

Want to relax and enjoy playing your favorite songs at the piano? Thought it was too late to learn how to play? Played years ago and want to try again? Metro's recreational music class is just for you. Class is taught in an upbeat, light-hearted, stress-free environment. It's an ideal setting to meet new friends, improve your well-being, while making music and learning something new! Classes are convenient, low-cost, and you'll love the instructor! Last class is a Piano Party Show and Share with family and friends invited and a cookie-exchange. Bring the camera! You Can Play The Piano!

INTERMEDIATE CLASS DESCRIPTION:

Enjoy making music in a group atmosphere as a non-beginner. This class will reinforce concepts learned in our beginners class or from any previous piano instruction. Continue development and exposure to music using two-hands on the grand staff, as well as exposure to new key and time signatures. Classics, folk, and pop songs presented in the Adult Book by Dr. Randall and Nancy Faber (available at the campus bookstore). We'll play even play duets! Come and learn new and enjoyable pieces of music while strengthening your technique and fluency. Emphasis is on personal enjoyment, process-oriented learning in a friendly, supportive environment. Last class is a Piano Party with family and friends invited and a cookie-exchange. Bring the camera!
